FOR SOCIAL PURITY.

Some of the Arguments Advanced --- at Baltimore's Congress.

OPPOSITION TO THE THEATERS.

One of the Speakers Declares They Are Productive of Immoral Thought and of Youthful Morals.

BALTIMORS, Oct. 17 .- "Monber" Prindle, superintendent of the Florence Crittenton mission in New York was a conspicuous figure at yesterday's session of the well parity engrees.

President Powell read a paper on "Purity Work D reved from English Experieiro," by Dr. Elizabeth Blackwell, of London, who could not be present. She declares the divorce laws of England to be the cause of moral distribution, and is carnest in n wadvocacy of a single standard of morality of both sex-s and the teaching of sound physical doctrines by Darents and physicians

The Rev. C. W. Watch, of Brighton, Ont , who was introduced as "the only for ign delegate to the congress," spoke of "Parity Work in Canada," and said in

"We have no struggle over uncertain divorce laws for we have neither a divoice court nor a divorce law, except in one of the smaller provinces. To procure a divorce with us requires a special act of the Dominion parliam at. The result is that for the past ten years there have been but forty-eight applications for divorce. forty of which were granted."

Dr. O. Edward Janney, of Baltimore read a paper on "Women's Responsibilities Regarding Social Morality,' by Dr. Emily Blackwell, of New York, Mrs. Blackwell said in part :

"We want to bring all women to understand that the only true way to deal with prostitution is, first, to diminish the demand upon which it is based by stamping vice with public reprobation in men as well as in women; secondly, to organize among women a broader and more effective form of rescue work. At present most of the effort in this direction is devoted to saving the fallen. We want a still more active effort to save those who are ready to perish, and every woman should feel bound to throw her help and influence into these efforts."

Rev. J. B. Welty, of Kansas City, Mo. Thite Cross superintendent of the purity Aepartment, W. C. T. U., took ministers to task for neglect of social topics. "The pulpit of our times," said he, "save in a very few exceptionable instances, is not outspoken in warning and instruction concerning chastity, social dangers and social duties. How few preachers ever touch on the commandment of the decalogue, or upon Christ's law for purity, or give an exposition upon his teachings about marriage and divorce. If they would take up these subjects more frequently they would not so often be caught officiating at the marriages of unlawfully divorced persons,"

Miss Jennie Ackerman, an around-theworld missionary of the W. C. T. U. stirred up the convention by saying that she had just come from Iceland, where an impure woman was absolutely unknown. That is because they recognize no impurity in man," she continued; "no matter what his station may be. When we begin a crusade in this country against men, and brand them for their vices with the infamy with which they brand women. then, and then only, can we get an ideal state of society of which they boast in Iceland. Let us begin a tremendens crusace against fallen men." The theaters as a rule hurts everybody.

NEWSPARSE BROHIVE & COM ......

It wastes the time that you may want to account for when you come to die," said Mrs. Deborah C. Leeds, of Philadelphia, who read a paper written by her husband, Josiah W. Leeds, on "The Relation of the Press and Stage to Purity." Leeds objected to "patronizing the play house because it is not a safe school of rabrals. Its performances are usually coarse or sensuous. Almost every actress of the day has been divorced. Such an atmosphere is unworthy of woman.

"The ball room is the place where many of our boys get their first downward impulse," declared Mr. Leeds, "and it is our virtuous girls who give them this idea, Hower class. The home parlor, too, is often the place where they gain improper ideas by seeing our women in dresses that are really undress. It was glorious to me to hear that the son of the ameer of Afghanistan, an Asiatic prince, had recently declined to take to dinner at Windsor Castle an English peeress because she wore a dress cut decollette."

Canadians Don't Want Our Currency. MONTREAL, Oct. 17.—Messrs. W. Weir, president of the Ville Marie bank, and Thomas Macdougal, general manager of the Quebec bank, have just returned from Ottawa, where they had an interview with Finance Minister Foster about the American silver naisance. They claim that a large amount of American silver and small silver certificates are in circulation in Canada, the amount being variously estimated at from $750,000 to $3,500,000, displaying that amount of Canadian currency, which has a gold basis while the American certificates are only payable in silver. The deputation pointed out that this displacement was causing the banks great loss and inconvenience. Mr. Foster called attention to the fact that the remedy was largely in the hands of the banks themselves. They should refuse to take American currency, except at a discount.

Brutalities of Lynchers.

MEMPHIS, Oct. 17.-Jeff Ellis, the negro who committed an assault on Miss Prater near Braden, and who confessed to other issaults and murders, was lynched near the scene of his crime at midnight by a mob of citizens. His ears and fingers were cut off and he was otherwise mutilated. and then banged to a telegraph pole and riddled with bullets. Afterward the body was lowered and the head cut off. Then the rope was fastened to the feet, and in that position the mutilated body was again strong up

The New Cup Chait uger.

LOYDON, Oct. 17.-J. M. Soper, the yacht designer of Southampton, who has been selected to build Distant Shore, the new America's cup challenger, had a conference with Charles D. Rose. Mr. Soper said that nothing had been fully determined regarding Listant Shore's lines or the time when work apon her will begin.

Work in Tive Mines Stopped by a Strike. Pertsburg, Oct. 17.—The drivers at the four Scott mines, and also at Ellsworth & Morris' Forest Hill mines, on the Baltimore and Ohio railroad, struck yesterday on account of a misunderstanding over the day and "dead" work scales. The strike caused a suspension of work in the five mines. The district officers have left for Scott Haven, and expect to have the trouble satisfactorily adjusted.

Capta n Bassett Has a Relapse. Washington, Oct. 17.--It was rumored

at the Capital that Captain Isaac Bassett, who, as page or assistant doorkeeper, has been in the service of the United States senate since the days of Daniel Webster, had suffered a relapse, and his condition was again dangerous. Inquiry of his physician, however, elicited the information that the sotback was not so serious as reGENERAL SANGUILLY'S TRIAL.

Spain's Attorney General Demands His Imprisonment for Life.

HAVANA, Oct. 17.—In the trial of General Sanguilly, an American citizen, on the charge of rebellion against the Spanish government, the attorney general, Senor Enjulo, in concluding his argument, asked that the sentence of imprisonment for the the immediate of the sentence. life be imposed upon the prisoner.

Senor Enje to declared that Sanguilly, though an American citizen since 1889, is a born resident of this island, and was, up to his arrest on Feb. 21 of this year, one of the most energetic ringlegders and instigators of the arred revolution in Cuba. There are no circumstances tending to mitigate the punishment which he has justly incurred, declared Senor Enjulo. The defense of the prisoner is not yet

Julio Sanguilly, it is claimed, has a very bad record, and it has been reported that the Cubans have threatened to assassinate him if he was released from custody. Sanguilly fought with zeal and courage during the revolt of 1808, and rose from a private soldier to the rank of general. But his conduct recently has not met with the approval of the patriots. He is said to have been short in his accounts with a railroad company a few years ago, and it is claimed that he gambled away half of the funds collected by Manuel Garcia, which were given into his care to be used in the cause of Cuba. Another rumor was circulated in Havana some time after his arrest that he had been paid $25,000 by the Spanish government, guaranteed protection, and offered a position in the Phillippine islands.

In any case Sanguilly, after being taken into custody, appealed to Consul General Williams at Havana, and the latter cabbd to the state department at Washington soon afterwards that the American citizenship of the prisoner having been established to the satisfaction of the captain general of Cuba, his trial, in accordance with treaty stipulations, had been transferred from the court martial to the civil

The President's Trip to Atlanta.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—Arrangements have been perfected for the coming visit of Mr. Cleveland and his cabinet to the Atlanta exposition. The presidential party will leave Washington at 11 p. m. on Monday next, and will arrive at Atlanta at 4 o'clock the next afternoon. The president will be accompanied by members of his cabiner and their wives, and by Private Secretary Thurber and wife. Mrs. Cleveland has not yet decided to go. The presidential party will leave Atlanta on the evening of Wednesday, the 23d, and it is expected that the special train will arrive in Washington between 6 and 7 o'clock Thursday evening. The train will pass through Charlottesville. Lynchburg and Danville. Va.; Salisbury and Charlotte, N. C.; Spartansburg and Greenville, S. C., and Gainesville. Ga.

Colohel Romero's Sentence Affirmed. CITY OF MEXICO. Oct. 17.-The appeal done: Romero, the famous duelist, has been decided in an upper court sustaining the sentence of the lower court as to the duration of the sentence, which is, three years and eight months' imprisonment, but the amount to be paid annually for eighteen years to the family of his victim, Verastagui, is reduced from $4,500 to $1,000, and he is also relieved of paying funeral expenses.

The Virgin of Guadaloupe.

CITY OF MEXICO, Oct. 17.-It is reported in Catholic circles that the pope will be asked to sanction the idea advanced by Archbishop Corrigan, of New York, and make the Virgin of Guadaloupe the patroness of the American hemisphere, and that if the request is granted there will be another coronation four years hence, in this city, attended by prelates from North, Central and South America.

THE PRIZE FIGHT PUZZLE

Governor Clarke Has Ordered the Militia to be Ready

TO PREVENT THE PROPOSED FIGHT

In Hot Springs, However, It Is Asserted That a Sitisfactory Arrangement Has Been Made with the Executive-Fitzsimmors Stoll Remains in Texas.

LITTLE ROCK, Oct. 17.—Colonel Hollenberg, commanding the First regiment, Arkansas 6 meds, has issued orders to every company in his regiment to hold them-elves in realiness, subject to a call to move to Hot Speings. In an interview today Colonel Hollenberg said: "There is no secret about the matter. Orders have been sent to every company of white militing in the stars notifying them to be in readiness to move to Hot Springs on short notice. If the managers of the fight continue in their determination to have the figur come off the militia will be called out and stop the fight. "Whether the governor is right or wrong, if he sends the militia to Hot Springs, the fight will be stopped. I cannot take any cognizance in the premises in de-eiding whether he is right or wrong. Just how the governor proposes to pay the expenses of the militia in the event that they are called out to Hot Springs is not known If Garland county calls for the militia, of course, that county will be held responsible financially. If the governor calls out the soldiers on his own hook, it is not known who will pay the militia's expenses, as the state has no money appropriated for this

Attorney General Kinsworth's opinion on the legality of the course adopted by Governor Clarke in connection with the prize fight question will probably never be known, unless the governor calls upon him for a written opinion in the regular

An Associated Press representative sought to interview Mr. Kingsworthy. "Has the governor any lawful right," asked the reporter, "to declare martial law in a locality where there is a regularly constituted local government, who have expressed confidence in their ability to maintain order without his assistance, and without being called upon for his aid or assistance by the local peace officers?"

"I decline to answer." replied the attorney general, bluntin. "I will not give an opinion on this subject to any private citizen or to the press. I shall say nothing absolutely unless called upon by the governor in his official capacity for a written opinion. If that is called for it will remain for the governor to make it public if

Mr. Kinsworthy said that he had received upwards of a thousand letters from various parts of the state from citizens seeking his opinion on various subjects and that he had ignored them all. He believed, he said, that the governor had ample authority under the law to stop the fight, but would not venture an official opinion. He admitted that the governor is basing his course of action on the law

Further questioning proved fruitless, as the attorney general was firm in his resolution not to be interviewed.

"Were I to submit to an interview," he said, "I might say some things that would not agree with Governor Clarke's view of the matter. Should I do this he would come in here and jump on me, and I am not going to take any chances on that."

CONFIDENCE AT HOT SPRINGS. Still Ta'king Fight Despite the Governor's Vigorous Attitude.

HOT SPRINGS. Oct. 17. - Whether the meeting of Corbett and Fitzsimmons shall occur at Hot Springs Oct. 31 is not decided, but from all indications the chances are now exceedingly favorable. Governor Clarke arrived on the noon train from Little Rock, and yesterday afternoon he met the local committee, together with the Garland county officers, in private conference, to which not a newspaper man was admitted.

Members of the conference when buttonholed said that it had been agreed in the meeting that nothing that occurred there was to be made public. From the best information that could be wormed out of the reluctant conferrees it is understood that the matter is to be left by the governor in the hands of the local authorities, in whom he has confidence, to properly interpret the law and enery it

Pursuant to this it is generally understood that since Fitzshimmons has not appeared in this state as yet, and therefore Corbett cannot be made subject to arrest, O'Donnell and Maher, who are here to be arrested on a charge of conspiracy to break the peace, will be "taken in." The exact bond of $5,000 will be refused, and a writ of habeas corpus sued out, which will come up for trial before Chancellor Judge Leatherman at once, and his decision is to be considered as a test of whether there is a prohibitive law affecting prize fighting. The governor himself says that no such law exists and that Judge Hudgins confirms this opinion. This makes the pros pect for an exhibition here seem exceed ingly reseate, providing Fitzsimmons comes to time.

Manager Vendig wired Fitzsimmons yesterday to come at once or the contest would be declared off. Fitzsimmons replied that he would not come here till the day before the fight. Fitzsimmons or his representatives promised to be here. Monday, when a referee would be selected. He was not here. Tomorrow the sum of $8,100, to make good the $10,000 forfeit, must be in Phil Dwyer's hands. The time is grow-

FI'Z WANTS A FIGHT. He Declares He Will Enter No Soft Glove Hippodrome.

CORPUS CHRISTI, Tex., Oct. 17.-Martin Julian left here this morning for New Orleans, from where he will go direct to Hot Springs, fully prepared to carry out litzsimmons' part of the agreement with the Florida Athletic club. Both he and Fitzsimmons are very much surprised at the statement regarding the change of the original agreement, to a sparring exhibition with soft gloves. He indignantly denies that Fitz-immons would engage in such exhibition.

"Our contract with the Florida Athletic club is for a fight to a finish," said Julian, "and the gloves are to be five onness. We are ready to perform our part of the agreement but Fitzsimmons if not going to enter any pugilistic hipprodrome. If any one gets a ticket and Fitzsimmons goes into the ring they will see him whip or get whipped before he com s out." Fitzsimmons said: "The change of the rules proposed is a fake. Such a show would not be of any credit to either Corbett or me. They are just using us to let the Florida Athietic club sell more tickers and the citizens of Hot Springs draw a crowd totown. Suppose the referee called the fight when Corbett had landed on me or I had hit him, who would be champlon? I came down here to fight Corb at, and all I want is time and place without any interference. In the meantime I shall continue to train here until the trace and place is settled.

Interesting Spood Contest Botween the St. Louis and Majestic.

BOTH CARLY AMERICAN MAILS.

As the St Louis Has a Mail Clerk on Board Her Mail Will Doubtless Reach London Many Hours in Advance of the Majes-

New York, Oct. 17.-The new American liner St. Louis sped from the harbor jesterday on her race with the mails across the ocean. She left her pier in the North river four hours ahead of her rival, the Whit - Star liner Majestic, but that fact will not in the least stifle the ambition of the craft to get their postal matter in London first.

The St. Louis is bound for Southampton, or 280 miles further than the Majestic's destination, which is Queenstown. This means from fourteen to fifteen hours extra steaming for a leviathan of the St. Louis' speed, but in landing the mails at Southampton the journey between that point and London is two hours only by rail. The distance between Queenstown and London by way of Dublin, Kingstown and Holyhead is 504 miles, which is accomplished in fifteen hours and forty minutes, including the sea passage of three hours and forty-three minutes between Kingstown pier and Holyhead. So it can be seen what a close contest it is, all things

What lends additional interest to the journey of the two ships is the fact that through the medium of the St. Louis the American line inaugurates on this trip a postal contract with the United States government that will not the steamship company $614,800 per year, or $6,448.000 for the ten years in which the agreement will hold good. These figures are given on the basis of one trip to Europe each week by any of the four greyhounds-the St. Louis, St. Paul, Paris or New York.

The postal revenue to the company is exclusive of any that the British government may give for the home passages. Because of this subsidy and the big sums involved, the postal authorities of both continents will watch the inaugural trip with the greatest interest.

The St. Louis has a mail clerk on board, a novelty that England has not yet adopted. This postal clerk, on the way over will sort and distribute the mail, so that when it reaches the Southwestern railway station at Southampton it will all be practically ready for delivery. There being no postal clerk on the Majostic the mail of that vessel will be delivered at Queenstown in the same crude shape in which it was put aboard, and the sorting process will have to be done on the other side.

Liquor Dez'ers as Reformers.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17 .- At the convention of the National Association of Retail Liquor Dealers.the need of more radical steps for protection of their interests and more powerful organization at Washington to combat the temperance movement was urged, and it was asserted that without some such action the effect of the movement would be soon felt in the "shaking of the liquor interests from center to circumference. One of the resolutions passed reads: "We emphatically denounce all illicit and disreputable resorts, because they propogate drunkenness and debauchery among the youth of the community, desecrate the Sabbath and cast an odium on the legitimate trade, and we therefore pledge ourselves to assist in their suppression."

The Indiana's Preliminary Run. Boston,Oct. 17.—The battleship Indiana was given a preliminary run yesterday over the government trial course off the Massachusetts const. between Cape Ann and Boone Island, and the result was very satisfactory. On the run up the course the average speed was 15.31 knots an hour for two hours. Boilers, engines and everything about the ship showed to such advantage on the run up that it was not deemed necessary to speed her on the return trip, and she was therefore jogged back over the course at an average speed of thirteen knots.

Foreigners Organizing for Protection. SHAMOKIN, Pa., Oct. 17.-Three thousand

A SUGGESTIVE COMMENTARY ON REPUBLICAN AFFECTION FOR THE OLD SOLDIUP.

LAWS CAN'T PROTECT HIM:

Republican Clean-Sweep Spottsmen Bound to Get All the Offices in Sight and Yeterans Must Suffer Accordingly-Some Pathetic and Other Conspicuous Instances of This Fact.

Special Albany Letter.

The recent wholesale "clean sweep" in Superintendent Easton's department of public buildings, whereby over 100 faithful employes were arbitrarily dismissed for no other cause than that their places are to be filled before election day by partisans of the local Platt-Barnes ring, deprived of their places several men who had held office for over a dozen years and one at least who had faithfully served for a score of years. It also included a number of veterans of the late war, who were thereby once more reminded that the Republicans love the old soldier only on election day, and that neither law nor constitution is permittal to shield him from summary removal when his place and salary are wanted by some politician with a pull. It must not be supposed that Democratic veterans only have suffered under this spoils regime-liepublican soldiers who were continued in office under Democratic governors have been made to walk the plant because they were not of exactly the right shade of Platt factional proclivities.

The fish, forest and game commission, which was created by the legislature of 1905 by the consolidation of two nonsalaried commissions into one salaried commission at a great and unnecessary increase of expense to the taxpayers. has been run for all that it is worth as a spoils bureau, and its Republican Bosses have been especially indifferent to the claims of veterans or the law protecting them. At the present moment, this commission is retaining as fish culturist, in defiance of the civil service commission, a Platt man named A. N. Cheney of Glens Falls, although a comretitive examination was ordered for the place and F. G. Mather, a veteran, passed the highest examination.

It is a cause of congratulation, indeed, to veterans that Capt John S. Hutman has been restored by the capitol commission as time keeper, but veterans should understand that Capt. Hutman was summarily dismissed and his place given to a Platt henchman and that only after the law was found to be absolutely un. avoidable was a competitive examination ordered, in which Capt. Hutman passed the highest and the commission was forced to put him back on dury along with the incompetents it for the most part has employed.

THE CASHDOLLAR CASE. Lewis Cashdollar of Tivoli, a one-legged veteran, was one of the first to be decapitated by the Republicans. In a letter to an old comrade in this city Mr. Cashdollar says:

"I do not know of any charge against me, for Colonel De Peyster asked the superintendent and he said there were That is all none against me. I called on the I can say. I called on the Governor and laid my case before him, telling him that I was very poor and could do nothing in the labor line, or anything else to keep my family together, and could hardly get out of Ai-

"He said he knew there was lots of want and misery in the country but he could do nothing for me; that he was utterly powerless in my behalf, to reinstate me, 'but,' said he, 'you have the preference.' 'Yes,' I said, 'by the laws of the State.' He said, 'you see the commissioners.' I said, 'they saw fit to lay me off, and I come to you as head of the commission to be reinstated. But from all I could hear he was utterly powerless in my case, so I suppose that Ham. Fish and Lieutenant-Governor Saxton stood against me. "My war record is very plain. I enlisted in 1862, and was discharged in 1865, for the loss of my right leg. I was wounded on the 19th of September, 1864, at Win hester. I belonged to the 128th N. Y. S. V., Co. C., and am a member of G. A. R. Post 215 of Saugernes. "I will have to try to get to the soldiers home so I can let my family have my pension to keep them together, as I cannot do anything, for my health is "That is the consolation all of us old soldiers get from the 'Grand old Party;'

n: matter what service you saw or how badly you were wounded if you are not of their political faith you can starve I was discharged for being a Democrat. 'Yours truly, a (ne-legged s)ldior, LEWIS W. CASHDOLLAR.' THE WILLARD CASE. Martin L. W.Maid, of Jefferson county,

Is another veteran who has been discharged regardless of law or the preferonces supposed to be constitutionally assured veterans. Mr Willard, who was wounded in the aand at Bull Run, Aug. 29, 1862, was appointed to a place in the adjutant-general's office under the late Gen. Josiah Porter. From the moment that the Republicus curr I the State he was marked for removal, although he had passed a civil service examination and was as a veterir entitled to consideration. His removal was due to the machinations of the assistant adjutantgeneral, "Col." Phisterer, a Republican Gov. Cornell imported from Ohlo, and who was, despite his politics retained in office throughout the administration of Cleveland, Hill, and Flower. Mr. Willard is 53 years of age, and his health rever fully recovered from his four years of active service throughout the war. He served with Co. C., 35th N. Y. Velunteers, and Co. D. 156th N. Y. Volunteers, and was honorably discharged from both. He passed a civil service examination in December, 1892, and was appointed to his clerkship in January, 1893, under the civil service rules. Despite the fact that the law provides against the removal of a veteran except for incompetency or improper conduct, no such charges were ever pic-ferred against Mr. Willard, who discharged the duties of his elerkship always faithfully and acceptably, and was in fact assured by Gen. McAlpin himself that there was no complaint or charges against him Mr. Willard was postmuster of Antwerp, Jefferson county, from 1885 to *891, and was a most excellent official. In the fall of 1891 he was elected to the Assembly, from a Republican district Phisterer finally succeeded in driving Mr. Willard out in I man John Raines for the senate.

LOVE FOR THE VETERANS. April, 1893. He has appealed to the G. A. R., of which he is a member, for aid in securing justice in the circumstances detailed CASE OF C. F. R. COE.

C. F. R. Coe, the well-known editor of the Greenbush Star-Eagle, a familiar figure at political conventions and Grand Army encampments, was removed in March from the position of storekeeper of the new capitol. In his case it was pretended that the position was to be abolished altogether. The way that was gotten along with is that the same duties are now being performed by a "laborer" at $1,200 a year—pretty good pay for a day-laborer. Mr. Coe entered the civil war as a drummer-boy when only 15 years of age. He has served the State for years, and always acceptably and well. He was first appointed private secretary to Licutenant-Governor Jones in 1886. He served in this capacity during six legislative terms. In the spring of 1889 he was appointed storekeeper of the Capitol by Superintendent Burnham, and had held the position ever since except during the legislative terms when he was with the lieutenant-governor, and two winters when he was clerk to Speak. er Sulzer and Speaker Bush. Superintendent Easton stated that there were no charges whatever against Mr. Coe. Of course, every one understands that the reason of Mr. Coe's dismissal is because he is a Democrat. Mr. Coe is an active member of the G. A. R. and is temporary president of the Rensselaer County League of Veterans.

Henry C. Carr, of Union Springs, was a veteran who held the office of fish and game inspector under the old commission. He was promptly dismissed by the new political dispensation, and so far no effort to get the protection that the is supposed to accord vet-12118 against these spolls-hunters has accomplished anything. So flagrant a case of removal without cause was Mr. Cair's that even the Republican paper of his section was forced to condemn it.

THE OSTRANDER CASE. A. B. Ostrander is another G. A. R. veteran who is striving through the courts to get the justice that he cannot obtain at the hands of the Republican spoilsmen. Mr. Ostranler was on the eligible list of the civil service for the position of deputy superintendent of pubhe buildings, but the civil service commission by Platt's orders put that office on the noncompetitive list, and Superintendent Easton promptly "fired" Mr. Hitchcock, the Democratic incumbent, and appointed J. V. Jacobs, of Troy, a veteran spoils nunter but not otherwise connected with the military to the place.

William F. Calk.ns was a veteran; wounded in front of Petersburg through the right groin and left hip. No cause was assigned for his dismissal as an orderly about the capital. To a comrade he recently wrot, as follows:

"I fully agree with you in regard to the injustice shown to the veterans. For what reason I was dropped from the roll I don't know. This much I do know that men that were not born in 61 or 62 were preferred to men that traveled 2,000 miles in order to serve their country and were kept and I was let go. That is the thanks that a man gets for being loyal to his country. But the time will come when the veteran will receive his proper recognition and I hope that it is not far distant. They throw us a few crumbs now and then, but they are so small that we fail to see them. If we are only united we can make ourselved felt in the future.

I am yours truly,
WM. F. CALKINS.
Co. C. 1st Bat., N. Y. S. S. S.

William Smith, of Brooklyn, was discharged as an elevator man. He was a private in the war, and is a member o Post 5, G. A. R. No cause was assigned for his dismissal, and no complaint was ever made that he did not attend strictly to his duty.

SOME OTHER DISMISSALS. Some of the other veterans discharged by Superintendent Easton are as follows Charles Alexander, New York city Lewis Burges, Malone, Fred Bernard Oneida; H. E. Bolen, address unknown; J. C. Boynton, Wolcott; W. F. Calkins, Saratoga: J. B. Christian, Danemora; Nicholas Dowling, Albany; M. Dulan, Utica; H. R. Darling, Herkimer; William Flansburg, Watertown: A B. Fox. Ithaca; John H. Francis, Canadaigua; Charl Eitleman, address unknown; J. F. Humbert; Joseph Irving, Yenkers; O. B. Ireland, Albany; Myer Lev., Albany; R. E. Maxwell, Brooklyn; Edward Pedlow, Albany; M. A. Panyan; C. G. Rose, Monticello; James Coleman; Otis Griffin, Gloversville; John J. Jones: August Turch, White Plains; James Bouge, Albany: Byron Johnson, Ellicottville; S. A. Eshbaugh, Gasport; M. Gavin, New York city: Arthur Humphrey, White Plains; D. Murphy, Clinton county; C. L. Wheeler; W. H. Williams.

Upon taking office Superintendent Easton discharged 32 out of 56 orderlies and has since made one "clean sweep" and various removals from time to time. The above list is by no means complete, but it must be suggestive to A. E. H. veterans.

Do You Want Platt? It is now well understood to be th programme that Boss Platt intends to be a candidate for United States senator in case he cannot connect on a cabinet position. Nominations in the various senate districts of the State bave been manipular ed so that if Platt wants it there will be no Republican opposition worth mentioning. It is understood that orders have been issued to let the Republican State ticket slide and spend all the time and money in electing Platt senators at any cost.

If any citizen wants another 3.24 taxrate, another Platt legislature, and T. C. Platt for United States senator, he can get it by voting for the Republican legislative candidates in his district. They will all be Platt men when they get to Albany.

" & Bear Pit." The Republican county convention in

New York city was variously described by Republican newspapers as "a bearpit" and "a monkey-and-parrot time." The anti-machine, or Brookfield men, who put up contests in several districts, were not recognized by the committee on contested seats, while half the Brookfield delegates in the 1st District were unscated. The Platz machine ruled things with a higher hand than ever before, and as a consequence revolt is believed to be iminent.

Business Change-A Good Time to Buy Potatoes-The Siue Stone Business-The Milk Market -A Case of Tweedledee and Tweedledum-Pro Rata Milk Freights and Their Effect.

Correspondence ARGUS and MERCURY. -Mr. S. R. Morgan is having his house, No. 34 Highland avenue re-

-That the milk market is in a deplorable condition can be traced directly to the great drouth that has raged throughout Orange, Sussex, an : all the milk territory wear of those points. Milk has no doubt been off in taste, color, butter fate, and everything that goes to make up a good glass of milk. The result is the concumption of a great deal less of it than usual at this season of the year. That the supply is short goes without saying, but yet under the present conditions it is enough for the demand.

-I question the propriety of our State laws allowing eel racks in our inland waters. If the Fish Commissioners of Pennsylvania find these eel traps to be destructive of other fish along the Delaware where it is the dividing line between the two States, then why in the name of common sense are they not just as destruct ve to other fish in our inland waters. Here is just the difference, don't you see, twixt tweedledum and and tweedledee. I am not pleading for the eel at all, but just looking at the inconsistency of our fish laws.

-While the Orange county milk producers are no doubt making great calculations on the benefits that will result to them from a prorate freight rate on milk, the Delaware and Chenango county milk producers are dead against it. Now, bear in mind. I am not saying but that in justice the farmer from Campbell Hall, Goshen or Montos ought to get his mi.k. delivered in New York cheaper than that from Oneida, Tully or Chenange Forks, but if such is the case the far away milk shippers must suffer in proportion as the near by ones are benefited. Should the rates on Orange county milk be reduced to ten cents a can its farm property will double in value with consequent demands for creamery sites. We shall eli know more about this by and by. In the meantime let us keep our feet

-The fortune left by the late "Diamond Jo" Reynolds has, as is usua!ly the case, been greatly overestimated. Some newspaper reports have put it as high as $15,000. The plain, unvarnished facts are that, at the time of his death his estate was probably worth in the neighborhood of $3,000,000, and the greater portion of it has been greatly reduced in value since then. Since the death of Mrs. Reynolds the entire property has fallen to her brother, Jay Morton, of Rockland, and when we take into consideration the fact that Mr. Morton had property of his own worth say $20,000, and by the death of his brother, Crasy, got as much more, and to these add the "Diamond Jo" millions, he can be easily written down as by all odds the wealthiest man in all Sullivan county.

It will not cure everything. It is not claimed that it will cure but one complaint, that is, dyspepsia. We cannot say that it will cure every case of dyspepsia, but it will cure a large mejority of them. Such cases as are adapted to its use will derive immediate benefit. One small bottle will be sufficient to test it.

TRAFFIC IN TANGLER.

It is Large and Continuous and Apparently Conducted Under Difficulties.

The traffic in Lar, let is large and continuous. There a no tootpath proper, and the feet ruled gree has often to pick his way renong bear ly helen conkeys and camela Forectner - Le is justled by Jews in dark base jelahs and challeaps, the distinctive larges of their race; sometimes his piece, and storged by a burly negro slave, all in white or faded yellow, bearing on his head a tray of bread from the public ly belouse; sometimes he is swept into a miny corner by half a dozen of the sultan's cavalry, whose righly capacisened steeds, flowing robes, ffintlecks or spears, make up altogether an imposing spectacle. Perhaps also he may find himself confronted by a huge packing case borne down the street on the back of a donkey and supported on each side by men of color, who alarm the neighborhood with shouts of "balak."

The most interesting sight in Tangler -at least, from an artistic point of view -is the sok, or large market place for country products. It has immediately outside the wall in the upper part of the town and is contracted through the old slave market, now converted into a sliceing forge. In the forenoon it is too crowded to be interesting, but in the afternoon, when business has some what shackened, scenes of varied interest may be observed.

Yonder is a water carrier, with large goatskin bug slung over his shoulder, attracting your attention with the tinblacf a bell to the refreshing draft he offers. Here is a gaunt Arab from the Riff mountains, bareheaded, blanket draped and flashing eyed, interviewing with fierce and threatening gestures an občurate boking Jew, who is evidently demanding his pound of flesh. Near them is a country woman seated behind a small semicircle of milk jars. Her shr. veled, wormout features can be discrued through the folds of her coarse baik, which she holds carelessly together with her left hand, while with her right she lifts the lid from one of the jazz.—Good Words.

ANIMAL CURIOSITIES.

Tree Climbing Rubbits, Sheep Eating Parrots and Sheep That Love Spails.

It seems almost a stretch of the imagmation to think of rabbits climbing trees. Yet in Australia many rabbits have somehow acquired the tree climbing habit, having been forced, on account of the persecutions of dogs and other animals, to drop burrowing and mutate squiriels. An Australian scut on to England recently the two front tert of a rabbit that had been killed on an acadia, three yards from the ground, and he wrote in his letter that this was not at all a remarkable thing, and be had often found them, or at least the traces of their claws, on the bark of trees four, five and six yards high. For a parrot to eat sheep is another remarkable thing, and yet the kea of Nex: Zealand has become a sheep eater, having changed to this article of food from a parely vegetable diet. The kea has proved a serious source of annovance to the New Zealand herdsmen, and methods have been taken for the destructun of the species. These gay colored little birds will cut almost any kind of meat, but it is sheep that they prefer.

They have been known to kill as many as 200 in a single night and have done serious harm to the flocks. The tradition of the island is that at one time these pairets were unable to obturn their usual supply of vegetable food and that in desperation they invaded the "drying rooms" and ate whatever came to hand, finding sheep meat agrecable. In feeland almost all the horses are fish eaters, for the reason that the grain is scarce there and fish is plentiful. In England sheep are known who delight in smalls. The observation of this fact is not new; it dates back 150 years.

It is well known that a large number of insectivorous birds become grain earers whenever they find that they cannot precure their ordinary diet of insects.-New York World.

What Victoria Could Do.

As a matter of fact, our severeigns have raiely taken any active part in politics since George III's time, but they could still do some very astomshing things if they chose. The queen could dismiss every Tommy Atkins in our army, from the commander in chief to the youngest drummer boy. She could disband the navy in the same way, and sell all our ships, stores and arsenals to the first customer that came along. Acting entirely on her own responsibility, she could declare war against any foreign country, or make a present to any foreign power of any part of the empire. She could make evergman, woman and child in the country a peer of the realm, with the right, in the case of males who are of age, to a seat in the house of lords.

With a single word she could dismiss any government that happened to be in power, and could, it is believed, pardon and liberate all the criminals in our jails. These are a few of the things the queen could do if she liked, but it is not necessary to say that her majesty never acts in matters of state except on the advice of the government for the time being, -London Tit-Bits.

Gratifying Postal Report.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.-The postoffice department has compiled the receipts of the thirty leading cities of the United States for the third quarter of the year 1835 and a most gratifying increase is shown. The total receipts for the quarter ended Sept 39 were $7,400,449, against $6,-733,719 for the some quarter in 1894, an increase of 9.9 per cent. Every city shows an increase. Postal officials say these receipts are a save index of increasing business through all the country.

REGISTRATION DAYS.

ber 18 and 19, are the last days on whic voters can register.

Every Democrat should register. No registry, no vote.

Democrats, register, register, register!

"YHO THE --- IS SHAW?" The above question asked by the profane and ribald Press concerning the Democratic candidate for Member Assembly was partially answered Tuesday afternoon, when we reprinted from the Orange County Press, of April 19th, 1861, its glowing account of the godspeed which the people of Middletown gave Mr. William H. Shaw, the first citizen of Middletown and the town of Wallkill to respond to President Lincoln's call for troops for the nation's defense.

The profane and reckless Press's question may be further answered by a brief summary of Mr. Shaw's civic record. In 1861, just before he answered hir country's call to arms, he was elec cd a constable of the town of Wallkill. In 1865, while a resident of Chemung county, he was elected Justice of the Peace, an office which he filled most satisfactorily. In 1874 he was elected trustee from the Fourth Ward of Middletown and served for two years, proving one of the best and most faithful members of the Board. While a resident of Tioga county, he was for five years President of the County Agricultura Society, which was never more successful and prosperous than when he presided over its destinies. In 1885 he was the Democratic candidate for Member of Assembly in Tioga county, and though defeated with the rest of the local ticket, ran far ahead of other candidates. In 1888, '89 and '90 he represented the town of Tioga in the Board of Supervisors, served on important committees and was recognized even by party opponents as one of the most intelligent, faith ful and useful members of the Board.

Mr. Shaw was for twelve years in the express business in this city for seven years was the agent of the American Express Company, building up for it a large and profitable business. Since retiring from the express business he has been engaged in farming most of the time in Tioga county. but for the past two years in the town of Wallkill, near Scotchtown, Mr. Shaw is a man of good natur [ abilities, wide and varied experience, clear-headed and clean banded; be is one of the plain people and knows their wishes and their needs. If elected to represent this district in the Assembly,-and he ought to be elected by a large majority, he will prove an honest, careful, conscientious representative, who will be true to every trust and faithful to every

INCIDENTS AND HAPPENINGS IN COSHEN.

Tuxedo Day Reserved Seats-Vocal Society Concert-Miss Brown's Read. ing at Interpines-Not Born to Be Killed by Bullets in the Head-Klugsley Held for Assault -- Entries for Tuxedo Day.

From Our Regular Correspondent. -Reserved seat tickets for "Tuxedo Gala Day" are now on sale at the drug store of Power & Co.

-Mr. Chas. Scott has been confined to his home by illness for the past few days. His condition is not thought to be serious.

-Tickets for the Goshen Vocal Society's first concert of the season, on the 25th inst., can now be obtained at the store of C. E. Millspaugh.

-At "Interpines," last evening, Miss Jean Stuart Brown recited Shakespeare's, "A Winter's Tale," Dr. and Mrs. F. W. Seward had issued invitations for the event and a large number of guests was present. The recitation was beautifully and impressively rendered. Miss Brown is an elocutionist of ability and is highly commended by her auditors.

-After stopping Kingsley's builet with his skull, Monday night. Harvey Garner had so far recovered as to be able to come out of doors, yesterday afternoon. If Harvey is to be choked off in the bloom of his youth and beauty, a harsher method than this must be employed.

-Despite the rain and the cutting off of many consumers the village's water supply lasteadily growing less. The Rider pump has been removed and the steam pump only runs about -Kingsley's hearing took place. this morning, before Justice Swezy. He was held for assault in the first degree. Garner was in attendance at the hearing.

-The entries for the "Tuxedo Gala Day" events close, to-day. Mr. S. S. Howland, of Mount Morris, has entered his horse, Lady Bird, champion high jumper at the Madison Square Garden horse show, last year. The Earl, another good one, has also been entered.

BLESSINGS OF THE DEMOCRATIC TARIFF-

From the Amsterdam Sentine'. As the time for the meeting of Congress approaches, the growing evidences of industrial prosperity cause more and more embarrassment to the high tariff calamity howlers. have shricked themselves hoarse over the enormous importations under the new tariff of wool and woolens, as well as of other raw materials and finished textile fabrics. But they have left out of consideration the important truth conveyed by these imporations, namely, that the American people are wearing better and cheaper clothing than ever before. The enormous qualities of the finest fleeces would not now be imported for the first time if American manufacturers did not find a profitable market for the best produets of their mills. With improved machinery and means of production under the wholesome stimulus of free trade in wool the domestic supply of the demand for pure woo'en fabrics for the clothing of the millions

NO COSTUMES AND NO PERFORMANCE.

Manager Corey Refuses to Allow "The Newest Woman' Company to Appear A small audience assembled at the Casino, last evening, to witness the performance of "The Newest Woman." Shortly before 8 o'clock, Manager Corey appeared before the curtain and announced that owing to the illness of Miss Dorothy Chestic, the leading lady of the company, no performance would be given, and that money would be refunded at the box office. An Argus reporter interviewed the manager of the company, who informed him that, while it was a fact that Miss Chestic was somewhat indisposed, the rel reason for the fail. ure of the company to appear was owing to the non-arrival of the costumes for the play. The company was billed to make its first appearance of the season at Catskill, Tuesday evening. The costumes failed to arrive there and the performance was abandoned. A telegram from New York stated that the costumes would be expressed to Middletown, yesterday afternoon, and would arrive here at 9 o'clock.

Manager Corey, however, in accordance with advice given by the AR-GU3 some time ago, refused to permit the performance to begin upon such an uncertainty, and in order to keep faith with the public, made the above announcement and refunded the money paid for admissions.

Manager Corey is to be commendep for the stand he took in refusing to allow the manager of "The Newest Woman" to give a fake perform-

Superintendent Urbin is making a burlesque of the service on the North street and Academy avenue line. But two cars are now run, on a go-as-you-please, catch-is-patchcan schedule which seems to average a trip every twenty minutes. It is supposed that Mr. Urbin's idea in depriving the patrons of the road of decent service on this line is to reduce expenses. He could save a little more money by running no

From a Special Co. respondent

-Nutwithstanding the severe storm on Sunday, St. James' Church was well filled at the 11 o'clock service, when Rev. William E. Maison celebrated the boly communion for the last time to this parish. A number of people from the Chester Mission were present. Mr. Malson was assisted by his brother, Mr Pailip Maison, of Rutherford, N. J, who acted as server. The charcel was beautifully decorated with palms, and the choral service was elaborate and well We Promised You Specials If You Would rendered.

-Mr. Burr and family, who have been living in the Redfield house for a portion of the summer, have leturned to their home in New York.

-Most people are more or less impressed by wealth, beauty, fine dress and stylish equipages, but occasionally there is a person who rises above such feelings. The writer rode to Middletown, one day last week, in a trolley car, in which were seated two duaky damsels from that city. Cne of them remarked, in a very different spirit from that generally felt by the inhabitants of Middletown, "I do think Goshen is such a stupid place," to which No. 2 made reply. "Ob, I think it's perfectly dreadful." After a pause, No. 1 resumed conversation with the inquiry, "Goin' down to the p'rade Saturday." "How much?" "Fifty cents." "Hub' Think I'd spend fifty cents goin' to anything they'd have in that little cooped up place? Guees the Middletown fire r'rade 'il be a heap better."

-When the Roman Emperor of auclent histoay felt bimseif in danger of becoming spoiled by prosperity, he was wont to have a skeleton present at his banquets and triumphs to remind him that he was but mortal. When he who dwells in the tents of Tuxedo is visited with similar misgivings, let him sit at the feet of this simple Afric maiden of Middletown and from her learn humility.

-If any one who is familiar with he metaphysical writings of that ancient poet. Mr. Edward Bear, has through our store. happened to inspect the fall milinery, through his head must have inevitably run this jingle: "And the golde ; grouse came there,

And the pobble that has no toes,

MEN WHO WOULD LEAD EUROPEAN ARMIES IN CASE OF WAR.

An Englishman Who Thinks It Would De Profitable to Make a Technical Comparison Retween Viscount Wolseley and a Russian and French General.

I do not know the new commander in chief of the English land forces. I saw him once or twice in my life, but this is many years ago, and in military matters of the magnitude involved in the supreme command of a great army I am afraid I should prove an incompetent critic. But I believe to a great extent in physiognomy, and if Viscount Wolseley be not a very clever man he ought to bring an action for libel against his face, for he looks decidedly elever. If there were any doubt in my mind about his ability, it would be set at rest by the not very enthusiastic remarks in connection with his appointment I read in one or two French newspapers. "You are an irritable people, envious, jealcus and proud to a degree," said Bismarck to General de Wimpffen en Sept. 1, 1870. "You are an irritable people, envious, jealous and proud to a degree,' he repeated. "You were under the impression that victory is an appendage which was exclusively reserved to you.

Has the quarter of a century gone by since those words were uttered made a difference in that respect in the French people? I should not like to say.

It may not be altogether uninterest ing to look at the two men against whom the English commander in chief will be pitted if a quarrel should ever nuhappily break forth in Europe. I am alluding to the commanders in chief of the Russian and the French forces.

The Russian army contains several men of unquestionable capacity; nevertheless, there appears to be a consensus of opinion that, in the event of war, with no matter whom, the supreme command would virtually devolve upon General Obroutcheff, to the exclusion even of General Konropatkine. I say virtual command, for, nominally, young Nicholas would be at the head of his legions.

Having declared myself at the outset incapable of judging the English commander in chief from a military point of view, I am not going to stultify my self by endeavoring to do this in the case of Obrontcheff. I only repeat what I have heard. Until very recently the chief of Vannowski's staff and Aid-decamp General Obroutcheff was, in spite of his recognized talents, looked askance at in Russian military circles. The epithet "red" was invariably tacked to his name as late as 15 years ago, and the third section of the imperial chancellerie, without troubling to inquire into the matter, placed him on the list of "dangerous" men "to be watched very closely." A note like that from the Russian police becomes practically indelible, and, aid-de-camp general though he was, not the slightest attempt was made to efface his name from the list. After his exploits on the Danube Loris Melikoff drew the attention of Alexander II to this apparently flagrant injustice, to this permanent insult. The name was maintained on the list for all that, but the epithet was changed from "red" into "well meaning."

Obroutcheff has married a Frenchwoman, and is a declared partisan-or supposed to be-of an alliance with France. His views in that respect date from 1870, when he was an obscure general. I repeat, about his abilities there is little or no doubt. After the first checks in the Turko-Russian campaign he was sent in hot haste to the Danube, and he is credited with having saved the Russian army from total destruction. Before that, though, he had already become the intimate friend of the heir to the throne, and the friendship underwent no diminution during Alexander HI's reign.

Wherever the scene of the next European campaign of the French may be laid, General Felix Gustave Saussier, the present military governor of Paris. is beforehand designated as the leader. Saussier is clese upon 70. In spite of his large size he is very active, but for that size he would give one the idea of a mousquetaire of the Louis XIV period dressed in modern uniform. There is no doubt about his value as a soldier, which does not always mean an equal value as a supreme commander, but it is fair to state that in the battles around Metz, a quarter of a century ago, he distinguished himself most signally. The famous infantry charge at St. Privat, which practically barred the progress of the Germans on that side, was led by him.

Saussier was one of the officers who signed the protest against the surrender of Metz. Having refused to pledge himself not to serve again during the campaign, he was sent as prisoner of war to Cologne. Nor would be give his promme not to escape, consequently he was transported to a small town on the Vistula (Grandenz, I believe), and absodutely sequestrated-without effect, for he made his escape after all.

He allowed Gambetta to remain ignorant of all this, as well as of his republican origin, and the "great tribune," whose infallible instinct has been vannted so much, only looked upon Sanssier as a colonel of the empire and treated him as such. After that Saussier went once more to Algeria. Sanssier, I should say, has had more fighting than any general in the French army, but it would be rash to say that this made him a strategist. A brilliant soldier he was and is still, in spite of his age, and as he was barely 40 when France suffered her reverses he may have profited by them. To many in France herself he is an unknown quantity. These are the two men a comparison with whom and Viscount Wolseley it would be profitable to establish, but I mean a technical comparison, Loudon Illustrated News.

of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. These are made from the purest, most refined and concentrated vegetable extracts, and from forty-two to forty-four are contained in each vial, which is sold at the same price as the cheaper made and more ordinary pills found in the market. In curative virtues, there is no comparison to be made be-tween them and the ordinary pills, as any one may easily learn by sending for a free sample. (four to seven doses) of the Pellets, which will be sent on receipt of name and address on a postal card.

ONCE USED THEY ARE ALWAYS IN FAVOR. The Pellets cure biliousness, sick and bilious headache, dizziness, costiveness, or constipation, sour stomach, loss of appetite, constitution, sour stomach, loss of appetite, coated tongue, indigestion, or dyspepsia, windy belchings, "heart-burn," pain and distress after eating, and kindred derangements of the liver, stomach and bowels. Put up in glass vials, therefore always fresh and reliable. One little "Pellet" is a laxative, two are mildly cathartic. As a "dinner pill," to promote digestion, take one each day after dinner. To relieve distress from over-eating ther are undistress from over-eating, they are unequaled. They are tiny, sugar-coated granules; any child will readily take them. #### A HISTORIC CHURCH.

INTERESTING ANNALS OF DR. TAL-MACE'S NEW CHARGE.

The Eirst Presbyterian Church of Washington Has Had Many Famous Statesmen Among Its Members-For Forty Years Dr. Sunderland Bas Been Its Pastor.

Although Dr. Tahrage, who is soon to begin his ministrations at the First Presbyferian church at Washington, is probably better known to more people than any other American minister, his predecessor, the Rev. Byron Sunderland. D. D., who will also be his coadjutor, has probably been the regular pastor of a much larger number of prominent persons than Dr. Tahuage or indeed any other American minister. Dr. Sunderland went to the First Presbyterian church in 1853, and the fortieth anniversary of his first sermon there was celebrated on Feb. 5, 1893. Only four besides him were present who were also present on the Sanday he began his labors there. Then he was a young man. His hair was dark, and his eyes were bright. Now he is an old man, but his eyes still sparkle. His voice is yet round and full, and, although it has been found necessary to divide his work, his popularity with his congregation is still so great that his leaving is not to be thought of. Four presidents-Jackson, Pierce,

Polk and Cleveland—have sat under his ministrations. Singularly enough, they

FIRST PRESETTERIAN CHURCH, WASHINGTON have all been Democrats. When Dr. Sunderland began his pastorate, the part of the city in which the First church stands was the most fashionable in all Washington. It is not so now, and there was some surprise when President Cleveland selected it as his favorite house of worship. Perhaps he was so moved hecause he had heard the dieter preach nearly 50 years ago at Fayetteville, N. Y., near Syracuse, where the Rev. Stephen Cleveland was then displaced as paster by Dr. Sunderland. At all events, it is certain that Grover Cleveland, then but a lad, was greatly impressed by the Rev. Mr. Sunderland's first sermon at Fayetteville. Its subject was the fidelity of the engles in watching over their young.

There is nothing showy about the First Presbyterian church of Washington. It is a square box, prim and severe in all its lines. The singing is congregational, but is led by a quartet composed of young men whose music reminds the listener of a college glow club. Dr. Sunderland's rermons have been long, but not dull, for he is a sensible man and possesses a fund of dry Scotch humor which the president much appreciates. Out of the pulpit the doctor is companienable and pleasant, and his populacity with his acquaintances is not excelled by any Washington pastor.

Although, as stated, the First Presbyterian church editice still retains its simple lines of architecture, it has been enlarged by the addition of a second story and is now lighted by electricity, while its aged and infirm attendants are relieved of climbing stairs by an elevator, which was put in some years ago, Immediately before and during the civil war this church was the acknowledged center of Union sentiment in the nation's capital, and the loyalty of the paster to the federal government aronsed extremely bitter hostility on the part of some of the church members. In 1866, when Frederick Douglass secured the use of the church for a lecture on the assassination of Lincoln, the street in front came near being the scene of a riot. Chief Justice Chash presided at that lecture, and several members of the congregation withdrew from the church because of it. In explaining why he consented to the use of the church for that purpose Dr. Sunderland said:

"Douglass' lecture was really the toesin of free speech for the negroes, and there was no roof but that of the First Presbyterian church to shelter him."

During the early years of the civil war Dr. Sanderland's exertions were so severe that in 1863 he broke down completely and went abread, spending some time in Pavis, where he took charge of the American chapel. It is understood that he offered then to resign, but his Washington congregation refused to have it so and gladly welcomed him back when his health was recovered. His extra work consisted largely of his services as chaplain of thesenate and of sermous preached at the military camps around Washington. It was Dr. Sunderland who preached the first sermon to the famous Seventh regiment of New York afternits arrival at the capital. This sermon was preached in the house of representatives, where the regiment was then quartered, and the text was, "Endure hardness as a good sol-

Naturally enough, Dr. Sunderland's memory is stored with reminiscences of the republic's great men. He lives in the house on C street which was once occupied by General Fremont, the Pathfinder. Seward and Broderick, Chandler and Sumner sat under his minis trations in their day, and Stewart, Ton cey, Webster and Benton were all his neighbors. Besides he has been personally acquainted with almost every prominent American statesman for the last four decades, and he pronounced the gists or by mail.

I sat in Union square one evening smoking a cigar and enjoying the play of the fountains, and I scarcely noticed the man on the other end of the bench. When I got up to go, the eigar was pretty well done for, and I threw the stub away. As I did so the man rose and said:

"Sir, was that the act of a true and courteous gentleman?"

"What do you mean?" I asked. "There, sir; there!" he exclaimed as he pointed to the stub. "I was done with it, and I threw it

"Yes, sir, you did, and again I ask you if it was the act of a gentleman? No, sir, it was not. You knew I was sitting here.' "And waiting for my stub?"

"Certainly, sir! Yes, sir, I was waiting for it, and you deliberately tossed it away. Does one gentleman treat another gentleman in this manner?"

"Excuse me." I said as I picked up the stub, "but may I offer you this bit of cigar: .. "Are you a gentleman, sir?" he demanded. "I hope so." "Then, sir, I accept your offering and excuse your absentinindedness, thoughts were probably elsewhere." "Then it is all right. As a gentleman you und asciously threw away enough cigar to keep me smoking for a quarter of an hour. As a gentleman I called your attention to the breach of etiquette. As a gentleman you repaired your dereliction. and as a gentleman I thank you and wish you good evening.

And as I moved away he was smoking the stub with great vigor and evidently enjoying the smoke to the fullest extent. -New York Recorder.

THE CEATH OF JAMES N. PRONK known. From its platform in old

Meeting of the Middletown Bar -- A Mequent Tribute to the Memory of His cial questions which agitated the Friend-Other Remarks.

A meeting of the members of the Bar of the city of Middletown was held, Thursday moiling, the 17th inst , to take action upon the death of the late James N. Pronk.

William B. Royce was chosen chairman and John L Wiggins was appointed secretary.

Mr. Royce in tak ng the chair gave some interesting reminiscences of his early acquaintance with Mr. Pronk and paid a feeling and eloquent tribute to his memory, and friendship that had existed from his first meeting until Mr. Pronk's death.

A committee was appointed to prepare a memorial expressive of the sense of the meeting. The committee, consisting of Messrs. Vanamee, Decker and Finn, presented and moved the adoption of the following memorial:

We, the members of the Bar of the city of Middletown, desire to place upon record our deep sense of the loss which our community, our profession and ourselves have sustained in the death of James N. Pronk. During the early history of Middle-town and through the entire period of his active practice. he was a lawyer of recognized ability, of wide in-fluence, of established reputation. He was a distinguished ornament of the profession. In the strength, the dignity, the elevation of his personal character; in the beauty, the purity, the sweetness of his private life, in the breadth, the unselfishness, the patriotism of his public career, he stood before this community conspicuous unique, unapproached.

He leaves to the community a rare example of noble citiz nship; to his family the rich beritage of an honorable name; to us a tender, a precious, an immertal memory.

MR. VANAMEE'S TRIBUTE

Mr. Vanamee said: Mr. CHAIRMAN :- To-day, all that is mortal of James N. Pronk lies cold and dumb. To-morrow, tender handa will carry it, and loving hearts will follow it to that final resting place which has been the acene of hi. lifelong labors: the subject of his fondest ambilions and the source of his deepest anxieties. Death is to most a rude separation from the scenes of life. It is not often that death but the more closely binds one to the activities and the objects of life. But it is the peculiar felicity of this, our foremost citizen, that he will benceforth dwell in the temple of our institutions. Municipal comconceived by his own genius, reared by his own hands, embellished by hic own taste and preserved by his own energy; -where no shaft of granite or of marble can outlast his fame or is needed to perpetuate it; for the whole place is his everlasting monument, and every part of it be. 7, the indelible loscription: Sacred to the Memory of James N. Pronk.

No one will ever know the sacrifices and the struggles through which he passed to give to Middletown this beautiful City of the Dead.

He voluntarily relinquished a valuotoer to nevote to it alone his entire time. He disposed of a valuable property-since doubled in value—in order to expend upon it the entire proceeds. Through difficulties, embarrassments and emergences that would long ago have subdued a spirit less dauntless than his, it has been conducted. sustained and secured solely by his indomitable will, his ceaseless energy, his eplendid courage. Middletown has never adequately appreciated the noble qualities of his character or the noble work which has been accomplished by them. In an article upon Hillside Cemetery, written two years ago by the Hcn. Luther R. Marsh, himself one of the choicest, loftiest spirite of the age, in whom Middletown has long "enter-tained an angel unawares" Mr Marsh said: 'The city of Middletown has never paid due bonor to James N Pronk, the founder and irdefatigable maintainer of this rarely beauti ul Necropolia. It will some day, or rest under the stain of great ingratitude." It is a natural and an nonorable sentiment, which leads men to long that their work in life should be appreciated. Mr. Pronk shared this sentiment, and he told me once that he would leave in a collected form the materials from which an account of his life work could be prepared. Whether he found time to carry out this purpose I do not know But one cannot forbear the reflection that a careless, material and thank less generation will take bur a passing interest in any life which has consect to be useful to it. In the article to which I have referred Mr. March said further: "The time will come-it may not be in his lifetimewhen the true history of his labora will be written and justice accorded to his name. It will not then be too late, according to my doctrine, for h m to enjoy it."

It this be true-if it be that his spirit, though released, still lingers approving what we say here, then indeed will it be a sacred task and a supreme satisfaction to set forth at the proper time all that James N. Pronk did, suffered and sacrificed for the community in which his life

This is not a suitable occasion for a rarrative so full of interest and of incident for Hil side Cenetery is not the only work which he has left behind him. It is but his last crowning achievement. His life was crowded with patriotic and unselfish seeds. For thirty years there was not an enterprise connected with the growth and prosperity of our city in which he did not bear a consolenous part. He founded the Middletown Lycoum and Library long before public libraries were common in this State, and during the many years that he, alone and analded, conducted if, it constituted the most collightening, the most e o vating, the m st intell-count is fluance that this community has ever

Gothic Ball the most eminent thinkers of the time discussed with promorial Adopted—Mr. Vanamee's Eto- | found earnesstness the moral and sominds of men. Since then a new generation has grown up here which fancies that it has created Middletown. Not so. The foundations of its beauty and prosperity were laid by James N. Pronk and those who cc-operated with him, of whom Horatio R. Wilcox, John W. and Lydia Sayer Hasbrouck, Daniel C. Dusenberry, B. V. Wolf and Hiland H. Hunt are now the sole survivora. One by one, he has personally received into their long home, prepared for them by him, nearly all his old friends-Elisha P. Wheeler, of whom he has spoken to me a hundred times in terms of deepest affection and gratitude; John G. Wilkin who for many years was the only lawyer in Middletown besides himself and for whom he always cherished the highest respect and admiration-ind a score of others whose names, now seldom mentioned, but vet not wholly forgotten, are closely associated with the history of the rise and growth of Middletown.

And now he goes to keep them company. Death was to him no unfamiliar guest and he did not dread his coming. Indeed, with all his courage, his hopefulness, his manliness there were times when he wearied of the incessant struggle and longed for peace. Many a time duing the last few years the burden of his song has been:

"We are so tired, my heart and I, Of all things here beneath the sky One only thing would please us best -Endless, unfathomable rest.

"We are so tired; we ask no more Than just to slip out by life's door.
And leave behind the noisy rout And everlasting turn about.

"Once it seemed well to run on too With her importunate, fevered crew, And snatch amid the frantic strife Some morsel from the board of life,

But we are tired. ' And so the tired heart, the busy brain, the sensitive spirit has found rest at last. The world will go on without him, but it can ill afford to spare the men of his type now passing away in swift succession. He belonged to that order of men reared in the principles, the traditions and the habits of thought of the Puritan fathers by whom public spirit, civic virtue, the general good, the life of the community have been cultivated as superior to personal and selfish interests. There are no men ready to take his place. Municipal government, which James N. Pronk thought worthy the highest consecration of his talents and his energies, has fallen everywhere into the hands of the weak, the ignorant and the corrupt. It has proved to be the weakest part munities no longer summon to the public service their best and noblest cit zons or bestow upon them, when summoned, gratitude, confidence or even courtesy. If ever our institutions are redeemed from the deterioration which has overtaken them and the reproach which now rests moon them, a reproach which Mc. Pronk felt so keenly and bitterly, it will only be when our people everywhere learn anew the lesson of his life. It will only be when we emulate that patriotic ardor, that unsel fish devotion, that broad conception of the duty of the citizen, that sense of responsibility to the generation in which we live, that singleness of purpose and purity of thought, which, throughout a long, a busy and a useful life, animated the character and marked the career of James N

Pronk, Mr. Decker followed in a most graceful, touching and beautiful estimate of the life and character of

Mr Pconk. The memorial was unanimously

Upon motion of Mr. Dill, seconded by Mr. Low, it was resolved that the members of the bar attend the fu neral in a body.

And it was further moved and sec onded that the memorial be presented to the family and published in the city papers.

A CHURCH'S ANNIVERSARY-

The Reformed Church, of Blsomingburgh, Celebrates its Seventy-fifth Anniversary-Very Interesting and Well Att nded service.

The seventy fifth anniversary of the Reformed Church, of Bloomingburgh, was celebrated, yesterday, by interesting services in the church in the afternoon and evening, which were largely attended.

Rev. J. L. Stillwell, pastor of the church, seconded by the hearty efforts of the church and congregation, arranged for and carried through the celebration most successfully. The services were most ioteresting and the reunion of former pattors and members of the church was full of pleasant features. Visitors were most hospitably entertained by the ladies of the church at the parsonage.

Many members of the Classis of Orange, which met in the church, Tuesday, remained over and attended the celebration, and a number of former pastors of the church were also present. The programme as arranged was carried out, with the exception that Dr. Mills was not able to be present, though the historical sketch of the church which he had prepared was read by Rev. Mr. Demarest, of Walder, stated clerk of the classis, and Dr. DuBois' paper was omitted.

Rev. Mr. Searle's reminisences were particularly interesting. Rev Mr. Lydecker, a former pastor, spoke very encouragingly of the church's prospects, and Rev. J. H. Frezer's tribute to Rev. J. B. Wilson, who died while pastor of the church, was very feeling and appropriate. Brief remarks of greeting and encouragement were made by visiting clergymen at the close of the afternoon meeting.

The attendance in the evening was larger than in the afternoon. The addresses were made by sons of the church, clergymen who in youth or early manhood had been attendants on the church. Rev George P. Van Wyck was unable to be present, but Ray P. H. Milliken, who, after Dr. Duryea was made pastor emeritus, succeeded him as pastor of the Paterson church, spoke feelingly of the good man's life work. Mr. Milliken's address on a scholarly ministry was a most excellent production. Mrs. Clapham sang "Jesus, Lovet of My Soul," in most acceptable style. Rev George B. Crawford, of Franklin Furnace, spoke ably and interestingly on paiental it fluence.

one day only. The sick and afflicted may consult them without charge during their stay.

If you are incurable they will tell you; therefore invalide must not take offence if they are rejected, as no case will be accepted unless there is a moral certainty of a cure being offected. These Doctors are graduates of the best universities of Europe and America; they are of the highest standing in the medical profession and have had unlimited experience in the treatment of all Chronic Diseases and Deformities. As the latest methods, instruments and appliances of the various schools of both the Old and the New World are familiar to and at the command of this staff of ioctors, it is reasonable to believe hat in ninety cases out of every hun-ired a cure can be effected, even when the patients have been given up as incurable by doctors who have had less experience. Do not be discouraged because your doctor cannot give you relief, or even if he tells you that you cannot get well, for it matters not what your disease may be, you can consult the doctors free, and, if curable, they will treat you; if incurable, they will give you such advice as will tend to prolong life and afford you the greatest relief.

The doctor visits Middletown one lay each month. Will be at 21 Broom street, Port Jervis, Wednesday, Oct. 30th. Office hours from 10:30 a. m. to 5 p. m.
